Camp Registration is Open

We are excited to announce registration for summer camp is now open! There might be snow on the ground now, but it’s time to get ready for our favorite part of the year. Please join us this year by visiting http://varietyphila.org/ to sign up for any of our summer programs.

The summer gives returning campers the chance to reconnect with old friends, while first-time campers can look forward to making new ones! We will spend our summer participating in activities such as swimming, golf, tennis, drama, music, arts and crafts, nature, cooking and much more! We pride ourselves on being able to offer every camper the ability to choose. Within each activity session we offer our kids options so they can choose what is most comfortable for them at all times. Choice is a huge part of our programming structure and we believe it is a powerful strategy that leads to more confidence and independence in each camper.

We are happy to announce fees have not increased since last year. Day camp pricing is $550 per week and overnight camp is $1250 per week. We still do offer limited one-to-one services as well as before and after care. For campers attending four or more weeks, a multi-week discount of $25 per week will be applied. This year we will also be offering an early bird discount of $25 per week for anyone whose reservation is paid in full by March 1st.

We look forward to every summer here at Variety because every day kids on our campus learn something, accomplish something, or get a little closer to reaching one of their goals. Whether a camper is looking to learn how to cook a three-course meal or maybe just wants to have some fun in the pool, Variety can give each child the experience he/she is looking for. Spend your summer with Variety and sign up now!
